

9+1

good reasons to belong to Pro

- 1. We help you when unemployment hits you

As a Pro member, you belong to the Pro Unemployment Fund and thus receive earnings-related unemployment benefit, if its conditions are met.
- 2. Pro's legal aid helps

Pro's lawyers protect your back. We tirelessly support our members both in working life and also provide help for difficult situations in your private life.
- 3. Pro supports you at work and as a union

Your closest Pro contact is your workplace shop steward or occupational health and safety representative.
- 4. Pro influences labour legislation

Pro advocates wherever decisions are made, internationally, in the EU and in Finland.
- 5. Comprehensive insurance benefits

Passenger and leisure accident insurances are both included in the membership and are valid all over the world.
- 6. Develop as a professional

You will receive concrete advice from a personal career coach helping you be successful, know how to identify and bring out your skills and prepare for unexpected changes.
- 7. Well-being support and benefits

We want you to feel well, have a balanced life and be happy. That's why as a member you can talk to a well-being expert free of charge.
- 8. Other leisure benefits

As a member, you can also enjoy changing leisure benefits. There are benefits for wellness, restaurants and various activities, to name a few.
- 9. Vacation affordably

As a Pro member, you can book vacations at a discounted price in both hotel and holiday apartment accommodation.
- 10. According to our research, belonging to a union can bring up to 5% more salary, when, for example, the number of people belonging to Trade Union Pro increases from 15-20 percent to at least 75 percent in the workplace.